The Michaelman

WINOOSKI PARK, VERMONT VOLUME 4 APRIL 28, 1951 NUMBER 24

MAY 1ST DEDICATED TO MARY

"As You Like It" Given Fine Performance Here

By Art Kiernan

Last night before a capacity audience at Austin Hall the Knights and Knaves presented one of William Shakespeare's greatest comedies, "As You Like It."

From start to finish the play was very enjoyable and the actors and actresses played their parts to perfection. It was a great satisfaction to the cast themselves, for they had put in many long hours of strenuous practice, in order to make the play one of the best ever to be put on at St. Michael's.

The setting was very realistic with a background of trees, rocks and streams used to produce a three dimensional effect.

Miss Jean Denicore gave a fine portrayal of Rosalind, one of Shakespeare's greatest women, Miss Patricia Stancliff of Trinity College also gave a very good account of herself as Celia, the devoted friend and relative of Rosalind.

Among the many others who played an important role in making "As You Like It," a great success, was Al Castellana who, to the audience, will long be remembered for his outstanding performance as Touchstone the clown. Other members of the cast included George Filteau, Frank Corica, Bill Kennedy, Dennis Scanlon, Frank Durgin, Ed Freeley, Frank Barrett, Don Resse, Nick Tarrant, Barnard Hermans, Marie Dignin and Maureen King, who all deserve a pat on the back for a job well done. The entire production was under the supervision of Rev. Edward Tining, S.S.E., the club moderator.

Representatives from the Marine Corps will be on campus Monday and Tuesday, April 30 and May 1.

The Marine Corps recruiting team will be in Old Hall 116, to interview all those seniors interested in commissions in the Marine Corps.

Those underclassmen interested in the Platoon Leader's class which lead to commissions in the Marine Reserves should also see this interviewing team.

Blood Will Be Taken Here

B-Day will soon be here. That's Blood-Giving Day at St. Michael's. The program will be held on Monday, April 30, from ten o'clock until four o'clock, in Austin Hall.

The procedure begins with registration after which each donor will be given a physical exam and then will proceed to the donor room. After the blood has been taken, the donors will go to the canteen for refreshments. Today (Saturday) each donor will receive an appointment card. If he cannot be present at this time he should return it to St. Leo's Hall and have the time changed.

To date 177 have pledged to give blood and the committee headed by John Weinman is very pleased. St. Michael's College number one donor will be the Very Rev. Daniel P. Lyons, S.S.E., president of the college.

On a percentage basis Ryan Hall II leads with 50.9%. Next is St. Williams with an even 40% and third is St. Leo's with 37.1%. Congratulations to these Halls as well as to the other students who have pledged to give their blood that others might live.

Vocation Day

It has been an annual custom here at St. Michael's to set aside one Sunday designated as Vocation Sunday. During the week preceding posters appear on the various bulletin boards and literature is placed in the pamphlet rack outside the chapel. The purpose: To interest students in the all important question of Vocation to the Priesthood and Religious Life.

Sunday, April 29, is Vocation Sunday this year at the college. At all the Masses in the college chapel on Sunday, there will be a talk on the subject of Vocations by Reverend Eymard P. Galligan, S.S.E., Vocation Director for the Society of St. Edmund.

MASSES: 7:30 - 9:00 - 10:00

St. Michael's College will also offer an authority on Far Eastern problems in a free public lecture Sunday evening, April 29.

Under the auspices of the Mission Crusade, the talk at 8 with a movie, "The Bells of Nagasaki," will be given by Rev. Nicholas Maestrini.

Fr. Maestrini is managing editor of the China Missionary Bulletin and he has been editor of the English language Sunday Examiner in Hong Kong. His subject will be "The Orient - Today and Tomorrow."

The film, "Bells of Nagasaki" is based on the best selling biography of Dr. Paul Takashi, Nagai, pioneer scientist in radioactivity and distinguished Catholic convert.

The talk, which is free and open to the public, will be at 8:00 in Austin Hall.

All Michaelmen Will Join In Honoring Mary

In response to The Christophers appeal for May First Prayers and at the request of Very Rev. Daniel P. Lyons, S.S.E., President of St. Michael's, Michaelmen will honor the Blessed Virgin Mary, Mother of Christ in a very special way. A procession to the Grotto of Our Lady of Fatima is being planned, in which the faculty and Fathers will join with the students in honoring Mary.

The program will take place on May 1, and will begin with the procession at 6 p.m. From Austin Hall the procession will proceed out the driveway between College Hall and the Library, along the highway, into the drive of Prevel Hall and out onto the Grotto Campus. In the parade will be the SMC band, Underclassmen, Seniors in caps and gowns, Lay Faculty in Academic robes, Scholastic and Lay Brothers, Fathers and the Very Rev. President.

BENEDICTION AT GROTTO

Upon arrival at the Grotto the statue of Our Lady will be crowned with a floral garland by the President of the Sodality, John Trotier. The rosary will be led by the President of the Student Council, Tim Murphy, and the respective Presidents of the four classes. A short address will be given by Father Lyons. The program will end with the benediction at the Grotto.

Mr. Hanlon, steward, has announced that supper hour May 1, will be from 4:45 to 5:30. This will allow plenty of time for all to eat and be at Austin Hall in time for Benediction at 6. The Procession and program are under the direction and auspices of the Sodality of the Blessed Virgin. The Committee in charge include John Trottier, Chris Carey. Bill Doyle and Dan Jennings.

Junior Prom Plans Are Made

By LOUIS PANAKIO

The stragglers should realize that there is but a mere week till the biggest social event of the year, the Junior Prom under the Maestroship of Tommy Tucker, at Memorial Auditorium on May 4.

Yes, on May 4-5-6, the Junior and Senior classes will present the most tremendous, stupendous, and gala event of the year. Together with the Junior Prom, featuring Tommy Tucker by Popular demand, the skits, parade of horribles, and, last but not least, the field events, this year's Senior Weekend should yield the best harvest because nothing but the best sowing has been employed with 60 capable committeemen as fertilizer.

Those that have ears, let them hear, and not be one of the many disappointed that "wish they had gone." As I said before, this is the biggest social function of the year, and sorry to say, it may be the last for many of us. If you happen to be one of the unlucky and do not present your fair damsel at the prom, don't feel that you are ignored. There are skits, Parade of Horribles, and field events that cater to you, and at the same time round-out the weekend. So if you are thrown by the wayside, it's nobody's fault but your own.

Again, years from now when you are gazing down at the memories of your college career, remember the gaiety and laughter that you experienced from the Senior Weekend of '51.

Air ROTC Program Starts In September

The campus is awaiting the visit of Air Force ROTC officers within the next two weeks to explain the program which was approved for St. Michael's last week. It begins in the fall.

Just when everyone had almost despaired of hearing favorably on the program, Very Rev. Daniel P. Lyons heard from the Vermont Congressional delegation last Friday, with the official approval coming by mail Monday from Air Secretary Thomas K. Finletter. Thus did Fr. Lyons' visits to Washington payoff.

The MICHAELMAN, incidentally, scooped the downtown papers on the news. The George Little Press, printers of the MICHAELMAN.

Sixty-two out of 450 colleges were selected, so naturally college officials are quite delighted. Details on the number of men to be admitted, the kind of courses and other matters will be explained shortly, Fr. Lyons was informed.

In general, ROTC students take the same courses from the same profs, plus some specified ROTC courses and drills from Air Force personnel assigned to the college.

Registrar Thomas A. Garrett passed the good news to his pre-registration assistants who met the afternoon the news arrived.

MBH Degree To Seniors' Wives

By Jim Boyle

In an informal interview last night in a secluded corner of a well-known campus watering place, Mr. John Trottier, hopeful member of this year's graduating class stated, "my wife has written MORE term papers (she graduated from Middlebury and taught school for two years years at Fairfax, Vt.) for me! In fact, she deserves one-half my degree, and that's the TRUTH, mister."

Mr. Trottier was speaking in reference to the annual "Man's Best Helper" awards scheduled to be presented to thirty-two wives of graduating seniors. Mr. Trottier stated that he had seen Father Lyons earlier this week and the college President has consented to award the certificates in a formal ceremony scheduled for the end of the first week in May. Trottier hopes that last year's speaker, Professor Harold Carr, can be available.

On Friday, May 11, campus wide elections will be held for class officers, class representatives on the Student Council and NFCCS delegates. This year the Student Coulcil has introduced a series of election rules. The rules, printed elsewhere in the paper, are an attemp to place the campus elections on an orderly basis.

The purposes of the rules are to increase student interest in campus elections. A uniform system of procedure enables the elections to run smoothly as well as to give every student a chance to try for office.

Two noteworthy sections of the rules are the ones requiring all candidates to run on a Party platform, and the head of the platform (president of class) to make a speech at a special nomination meeting.

The reason for requiring a party platform is to help prevent candidates running for a lark and without any serious intent to gain the office and to insure an active campaign.

If each presidential candidate gives a brief speech it will enable all the campus voters to see and hear the men who will represent them for the coming year. It is good as it provides training in Catholic lay leadership by conducting campaigns and elections in a manner similar to that used in everyday American life.

The Student Council's supervision of the entire election is wise. It places the entire program under impartial supervision hence avoiding any chances of foul play or thoughtless mistakes.

The Student Council is to be commended for its increased effort to improve the campus elections system. Every Michaelman should follow the aims of the program, supporting the party platforms and electing the best men. The men elected will run your activity program next year; they will make or break it. Choose them wisely.

SAC Authorizes Change In Election Method

By Christopher Carey

In the interests of promoting a greater school spirit here at St. Michael's, John Chachere and Jim McKown, at the SAC meeting this week, presented a new, precise and orderly set of regulations governing the nomination and election of class officers.

Heretofore there has been no standard procedure in this matter. As a result of this lack of system, it was pointed out, considerably sloppiness and confusion have frequently existed at this time, not to mention the fact that student elections have often aroused too little attention and interest on the part of Michaelmen as a whole. Among the regulations introduced was the platform speech in which each presidential candidate will be required to deliver - an address outlining the purpose, promises and ideals of the party he represents. These new proposals were accepted in their entirety by the SAC. For a more complete coverage of these new election regulations see the story on this page.

Of particular interest to a good many seniors was an extension of eligibility for the annual senior awards. Until this SAC meeting all those who had planned to graduated this summer were technically disqualified from receiving these awards regardless of apparent qualifications. At the suggestion of Bill Ahearn the SAC voted unanimously in favor of granting eligibility to those mentioned above although they will not be among those graduating this June.

As a last item of business the sum of $20.00, asked by Jim Barry, was approved by the SAC to be used for a prize to the hall receiving the greatest number of points during the activities of the Senior Weekend.

SAC:

The new election rules adopted by the S.A.C. are:

TIME: 1) The Freshman, Sophomore, and Junior classes will hold nominations and elections each May at dates set by the Student Council.

2) The Freshman class will hold a November nomination and election at a date set by the Council.

3) Nominations will be approximately a week before elections.

4) All class presidents and moderators will be notified at least two weeks prior to the election date and will be sent copies of the election rules.

PLACE: 1) Both nominations and elections will be held in Austin Hall.

NOMINATIONS: 1) Nominations will be conducted by the class moderator or the president already in office.

2) All candidates will be nominated from the floor on a party ticket consisting of one candidate for each of the four class offices and three candidates for the Student Council.

3) These party tickets must also be submitted in writing to whomever is presiding over the meeting at the time of the nomination from the floor. They must contain the signatures of twenty class members other than those who are running for office and other than those already signed on other tickets in order to be valid.

NOTE - All party tickets must be formed BEFORE nominations.

NOTE - Voters need not vote a straight party ticket, and, in fact, the ballots should be drawn up alphabetically rather than according to party.

4) After all nominations are in, those candidates running for president should be prepared to give a short acceptance speech stating the qualifications of those men running with him on his ticket.

CAMPAIGNING 1) Campaigning is to be encouraged, however -

a) All signs must be approved by the Dean of Men.

b) The loud speaker system is not to be used without permission.

c) All posters must be removed from the campus immediately following elections.

ELECTION DAY 1) The poles will open at twelve noon and close at 4:00 p.m.

2) Balloting will be conducted by Council members.

3) Names of voters will be checked off of a previously drawn up list before they are given a ballot.

4) Council members will count the ballots immediately following the closing of the poles. Moderators will then be immediately informed of the results and a notice will be placed in the mess hall.

HOLD OVERS 1) To avoid confusion the Electoral Committee should choose those members of the Council to be held over another year before the nominations take place for the new year's members.

VACANCIES 1) Vacancies left by class officers will be filled by another Council scheduled election. Nominations will also be held, but candidates need not be nominated on a party ticket and need not give a speech unless running for president.

2) Vacancies in class membership on the Council will be filled by the choosing of another candidate by the Electoral Committee. This candidate must be chosen from those elected by the class at the last election. If none of these are available another election will take place as stated under vacancies, 1) above.

PUBLICITY 1) It is very important under this setup that the Student Council adequately publicize the nominations and elections. The Council must make certain that everyone is acquainted with the nomination procedure in advance to the actual nominations. The Council should work in cooperation with the class moderators and presidents.

HILL WIND

By Stanley Sigel

In your opinion, what effects do you think MacArthur's dismissal will have on our future?

LEO FLOYD '53
CLINTON, MASS.

This dismissal may have long-reaching significance if MacArthur becomes president. This is highly possible. We have already witnessed the mass approval of this man as a great general. It would be interesting at this point to look at the record of Ulysses S. Grant and question the possibilities of military experts as political leaders.

RUSSELL McGUIRE '52
GREENWICH, CONN.

Never before has so much been owed to so few. Of the few, stands MacArthur -- a symbol of American strength, courage, and determination. I feel certain that his dismissal is a direct indication to the world that we will continue without purpose or leader, and talk rather than fight.

CHUCK TOOMEY '52
WORCESTER, MASS.

I do not believe that the dismissal of one man should have a great effect on the future of the United States, a country of 150 million persons, but I do believe that in relieving MacArthur of his duties, President Truman has lost his foremost authority in the Far East.

House Refuses Late Filing of Bill Affecting St. Michael's College

St. Michael's College hopes to buy 10 acres of land from the state for use as an Air Force ROTC drill field.

However, the sale of land next to the athletic field may not be able to go through in time to put the field in shape for this fall.

Objection in the State Legislature to the introduction of the bill so late in the session caused the House to refuse admittance of the enabling act on Wednesday. Objector was Dr. John M. Thomas, former president of Middlebury and Norwich.

Very Rev. Daniel P. Lyons, president of St. Michael's, said Air Force officials urged getting the property, and Father Lyons had taken steps to get 10 more desirable acres to replace those to be bought from Camp Johnson at Fort Ethan Allen.

From Fr. Lyons

Prayer is sometimes the last thing in the world that people resort to in an attempt to solve their troubles. Today the world is extremely worried over Russia. Yet, how many are praying for her conversion - and for the peace that would follow?

The best strategy of all, it seems to me, is in lining up with Our Lady of Fatima. She can do what all the military forces in the world cannot do. She can not only stop the war - but she can convert Russia as well. Moreover, she has promised to do this - but on one condition, and that is, provided enough people pray. Sounds simple enough. And we know that millions are praying. Yet apparently not enough are praying - for there are no signs of peace as yet. More people must get busy then - and who knows but that just one more is all that is needed - and you may be the one.

May first is Mary's Day. The Sodality is planning a public but prayerful demonstration at the newly erected shrine of Our Lady of Fatima - the gift of the Class of 1950. Are you planning to be there? I am sure Our Lady will be keenly disappointed if even one Michaelman is absent. So let's all plan to make this event a most memorable one, and to make it a practice to visit the shrine daily - to pray for the conversion of Russia and for world peace.

Hilltopics

By Dan Tarpey

How about this --- Congratulations to Athletic Director George " Doc" Jacobs on his selection of one " of the boys" as mentor of the Frosh nine. Just who is this mild mannered senior whom " the Doc" selected from a host of candidates to lead his yearlings; who makes his home in Westfield, Mass.; who starred in the Provincial League with such major league ball players as Lou Klein, Paul Martin and Roland " Frenchy" Gladu; who has played varsity baseball, football and basketball at the Hilltop.

I continue asking you in all sincerity, just who is this new coach at St. Michael's, the easy going sort of a guy, who in his simplest ways of doing things, doesn't remind you of a coach, but will do the primary thing expected - win the old ball game. He doesn't make speeches praising each player's abilities and potentialities. He won't pass the buck to anyone if his team drops an occasional game. He will take a player aside for personal instruction rather than put the blast on him in public. Three guesses and you still won't name him because of his easy going disposition. Why, of course, it's none other than Angie Fioroni.

Angie came to St. Michael's three years back as a transfer student from Champlain College. Champlain's loss was a St. Michael's gain. Every one knew Angie was quite a chucker. You see it so happened, that during his yeat at Champlain, Fioroni got the call against the Knights on a balmy Spring afternoon. It could have been a night game without lights as far as the Knights were concerned because Mr. Fioroni was tough. If memory serves me correctly congenial Angie threw a two hitter at our beloved Purple and Gold hitters.

The following Spring as a Purple Knighter Fioroni was plagued with a sore arm, and his debut as a Knight came in the season's " finale" against power laden UVM. Many thought it was too much to ask, that the highly respectable Fioroni chuck on that cold Spring afternoon - marked by a constant drizzle. Angie told " Doc" he was ready, and the Westfield athlete proved equal to to the task in hurling the Knights to an all important 8-4 win.

Fioroni's collegiate athletic career, so full of promises in all sports, came to a close that same day when it was discovered that likeable Angie's eligibility had terminated.

Disappointed as he may have been, Fioroni was on hand at the first practice session last year - not as a player - not in the capacity of a coach, but just to assist those who needed his masterful services.

Angie is now the frosh coach. Being a young man in that profession, Fioroni, can mingle with his players more readily. A closer relationship is created in this manner and a greater bond of friendship is established. As a result the players will try harder to win for Angie who is " one of the boys". Good luck to Angie Fioroni in his success as coach.

Knights Host To Cats

Meet Arch Rivals Wed.

By DAN TARPEY

The Purple Knights journey down to Northfield, Vt., Monday afternoon where the opposition will be supplied by the Norwich Horsemen. The Purple nine refuse to take anything for granted - chucker " Buck" Bovee can be pretty tough when the chips are down.

However, the significant game of the week brings U.V.M. to the campus Wednesday afternoon. Who will get the nod from Coach Jacobs is still a mystery. The chances are that the starter will be narrowed down to veterans Joe Palermo, Bill Gosselin and Jim Devaney. The infield around the horn shapes up with Jim " Harvey" Garvey 3 B; Ed Markey S S; Frank Vindolin 2 B; and hustling " Rowdy" Dick Fitzgerald at 1 B. Vindolin is the only newcomer, and should be an improvement over Provost's anemic batting average of last season. The outfield from left to right will find no changes from a year ago with Cronin, Whelan and Tom Sullivan on hand once again.

WHELAN GOOD

The Knights will be an improved club this season with " Sugar" Whelan on hand all season. Jack didn't get out until mid-season, and right away made his presence known in the S.M.C. lineup. Lightning fast, " Sugar" can throw with the best of them, and can lace the ball with plenty of authority. Disregard his batting average last season - it means nothing as far as I am concerned.

Pitchers Ed Keating and Lou Andriotta should be an asset this season. Keating is a veteran while Lou will be wearing the varsity spangles for the first time. Although not too impressive with the frosh last season, Lou played in fast company down in N.J. last summer, and sums his trouble last year to inclement weather. How right he is too.

MEEHAN GREAT AT 3 B.

The Companion's " Ten Little Indians" opened their season as expected by pounding out an easy 16-4 triumph at the expense of Mgr. " Bid Sid" O'Connell's Bastille team. Starring for the Indians were " Good Sam" O'Brien, Joe Slattery, Walter Good and Billy Allen. Allen pounded out a couple of four baggers and found time to chip in with a bingle for a total of nine bases. Slattery also found the range with a shot over the center fielder's head while O'Brien and Good had five hits between them. Jack " the Cat" Meehan and Red Hemsworth saved chucker Don Watson on more than one occasion with fielding gems, which electrified the crowd. With Meehan at the hot corner, the Indians look like the team to beat.

HERMANS BAT ON FIRE

Heavy hitting Joe Hermans swung his usual potent bat as the Lion's from St. Leo's downed the Roaring " Rotunds" behind the steady hurling of Danny Fitzgerald. Hermans socked a booming triple - the ball being so well stroked that a faster man could have come all the way around and then some, but Joe was content with three bases. Other stars for Lions were " Moe" Mahoney and Bob Gaul.

"KNOBBER" PACES ATTACK

St. Pat's made it two in a row behind sophomore twirler Joe Powers, and Bob " Knobber" Pennock. " Knobber" scored twice and had 2 RBI's with a lusty double and single.

The " Irish" wanted this one bad and the feeling in that camp is that " boy we're the toughest." Pacing the attack for the two time loosers were Bob Martin, Jim Feloney and Leo Conway.

CLIFFORD SAVES RYAN III

A great one handed catch by outfielder Dick Clifford off the bat of George " House" Lavallee preserved a 15-11 victory for Bob Larkin, and brought Ryan III their second win of the season. Gene Messier found a pitch he wanted for the winning club, and proceded to lose it for the only homer of the game. Other players who played a prominent part in the victory were: " Chick" Daniels, John Connors, and owen Murphy.

GEARY STARS AGAIN

In a non-league game played for charity Sunday morning, the Ryan Hall II Shamrocks edged the Lions in a pitcher's duel between Jim Farley and Dan Fitzgerald. The bats of Gene " the Kid" Geary, Tom Maloney and Dick Gleason told the story. Maloney drove a drive down the first base line which was fair by inches and wound up on 3 B. " The Kid" drove in what proved to be the winning run in the last frame with a rousing

VETERANS' NOTES

Veterans are urged to take advantage of the Vocational Guidance counseling while it is still available. According to authorities in the Veterans Administration Regional Office in White River Junction, Vermont, time is running short on the opportunity to acquire vocational counseling and training under the G.I. Bill.

Under present regulations, those veterans who served ninety days or more with an honorable discharge sometime between September 16, 1940 and July 25, 1947, are eligible for such training and counseling if requested. Non-disabled veterans are eligible for one year's training plus the time spent in the service but the total is not to exceed four years. However, Public Law 346 states that these veterans must start their training within four years from the date of discharge or by July 25, 1951, whichever is later. This deadline date of July 25, 1951, is the reason that the Veterans Administration has been making an effort to inform veterans of their right to apply for such counseling in order to determine how best to use their available entitlement.

Those veterans who have had no training under the G.I. Bill or who have more coming to them and have any idea of taking training may apply for counseling or enroll in the training institution before July 25. Not only should the veteran be enrolled in an accredited course by that time, but he must be actually going to classes and the course must have been approved by the Veterans Administration.

Those veterans who are already taking training and whose courses extend beyond July 25 have nothing to worry about so long as they do not change their courses of training. Those veterans are allowed the usual summer vacation from school or employment and also are allowed sick leave and approved absences for reasons beyond their control. Those veterans who are getting a degree in June and wish to continue graduate work in the same field in September will have no difficulty provided they write the Veterans Administration a letter stating their intentions of continuing training in the same general field as their present courses.

It should be clearly understood that this July 25 deadline does not apply to disabled veterans who are in training or who wish to apply for training under Public Law 16. Those veterans who apply for vocational counseling will receive complete testing and counseling by competent Vocational Guidance advisers.

The presentation of the awards will take place May 2, 1951. The Very Rev. Daniel P. Lyons, president of St. Michael's will address the group.

FRED STEVENS

Mr. Fred Stevens, manager of the Burlington office of Burroughs Adding Machine Co., spoke to the Business Forum at its last meeting. He spoke of the necessity of profits in any business, in order that a company may provide steady employment for its people, goods for its customers, and a return to its investors. He illustrated his talk with a film, "In Balance," which related the profit motive to these three objectives. Mr. Stevens also demonstrated one of the latest types of accounting machines perfected by the Burroughs Company.

At a business meeting preceeding Mr. Steven's talk, officers were elected for the coming year. Those elected were:

President - Jerry Hallinan
Vice-President - Pete Plourde

The way I make my girl feel good
When things don't seem so funny
Is just to say, "The world's okay,
For here's a Lucky, honey!"

I study singing—Do, Re, Mi—
The scales I sing by rote.
But I sure sing my very best,
When Lucky Strike's the note!"
